

(POETRY) RHYME AND SHINE

HAVE A LOOK AT THIS SILLY POEM AND CHOOSE YOUR OWN WORDS TO FINISH OFF
THE RHYMING COUPLETS.

* A RHYMING COUPLET is two short lines
where the ends sound the same.

Poetry can be a FUN way to express yourself.

MY BONKERS JOURNEY

I wandered off one
And met a singing, striped balloon
He offered me a spotted fish
That granted every single
I said, 'Let's fly up to the moon!'
He tied my shoes to a
We soared above a herd of sheep
That danced and bounced in their
We landed in a bowl of
And met a duck who gave advice:
A dancing broomstick waved at me
Then turned into a massive
We passed blue dragons making tea
And a whale who waltzed with a tiny
I landed home with a splat and a
And found both shoes in a dish
Sadly, no one saw my bonkers ride
But someone asked if I had a

CHOOSE TO RHYME

You can mix and match to make silly or sensible endings. But the words must rhyme!

- mice flea peep afternoon fish tide beep raccoon
- wide cartoon wish dish guide spoon balloon jeep
- key splish rice baboon splice tree sleep swish
- bee ski pride

Spot On English First Additional Language
Learner's Book
7 Grade
ISBN 9780796234971